Speaker: Kathleen Clark, Executive Event Chair for the Walk to End Alzheimer's

Join us this Thursday to hear from Kathleen Clark, CFP® with Edward Jones, and 10 year volunteer with the Alzheimer's Association. The Alzheimer's Association was founded in 1980, uniting caregivers, researchers and activists, bringing people and scientists together. Their vision is a world without Alzheimer and all other dementia. Kathleen will share insights on the Alzheimer's/Dementia Rotary Action Group (ADRAG), covering key dementia facts and the ten warning signs. Brain Health Awareness Month is in June, and Alzheimer's Association volunteers are organizing events in the Coastal Bend to educate the community about fighting dementia. Join us to discover how you can help in this effort.

Past President Art Zeitler will preside over the meeting.

Upcoming Speaker: Rotary International Representative Tony Sharma
